

Meet the Forever Resorts team

HAVING RECENTLY moved its head office to Pretoria, Forever Resorts is expecting to improve on what it has described as a "great 2005". The STO market, says Forever's Bradley Boucher, is up 26 per cent, while the conferencing division has reported a whopping 75 per cent growth. Forever attributes this success to a strong marketing campaign and recent efforts to upgrade its key properties. Forever has already spent R25m (€3,3m) on upgrades and is planning to continue investing in its portfolio, says MD, Kobus Tait.

Two new properties have also just been opened – Amanzi in Limpopo's Waterberg and a four-star camp in Phalaborwa.

The Forever Resorts team toasts its new 'Refresh' promotion.
