

Top women are honoured at club

THREE businesswomen were honored for their achievements at the annual East Rand Business Women's awards ceremony at Summerplace.

Glynnis Holdsworth of Highveld Décor Services was chosen as businesswoman of the year. Her business imports a range of décor related products.

The upcoming entrepreneur of the year award went to Liezel van Rooyen of the training, development and coaching business, Unleash Life

Coaching. She is a sought after facilitator and develops training material on a contract basis.

Estelle Schutte was the corporate businesswoman of the year. She is general manager at IC Auto Fiat in Kempton Park.

The three winners walked away with various prizes, including a holiday sponsored by Aventura Resorts, beauty products and a cash prize sponsored by ABSA.

THE winners of the East Rand Business Women's annual awards. Pictured are Anne Holdsworth (standing in for her sister Glynnis, who won businesswoman of the year), Mr Bernie Claasen (sponsor), Liezel van Rooyen (entrepreneur of the year), Francine Dawson (last year's entrepreneur of the year), Estelle Schutte (corporate businesswoman of the year) and Bradley Brouwer (sponsor).

